

Sanjib Praja
Makwanpur

Story

Sanjib is 11 years old boy who was born in 2006 June 24 through Sukuram Praja who dead 2012 September 20, and Pavimaya Praja who dead on 2014 September 13.

His parents were poor and had no land or property. His father dead due to Pneumonia and his mother dead both kidney failures.

Sanjib is healthy and very attractive looking. He has a big sister who is married. He has a brother who is dumb. Sanjib currently lives in Raksirang-9, Botbari, Makwanpur. Sanjib study in class 7 in Shree Praja Jagriti Nimna Madhyamik Bidhyalaya.

His daily routine includes, wake up and face wash, brush teeth, eat breakfast, do homework and get ready for school. He likes all kinds of food; they don't grow rice, because they don't have paddy field. They eat Dhido, which is traditional food of Nepal, similar to halva, made by boiling water and putting the flour of millet or wheat or corn flour. It could be best when it is served with chicken soup. He likes to catch fish in nearby river.

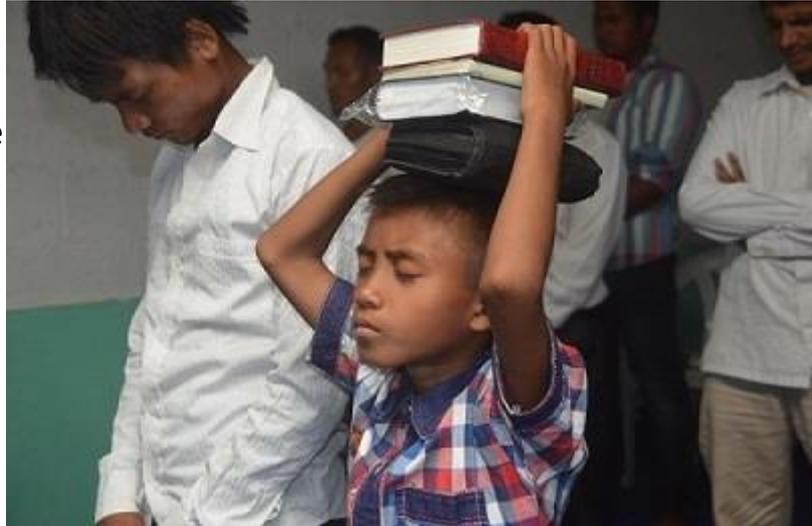

He likes to play football in free time the pitch is near the river bank close to where he lives. He lives in remote village and has no idea of how many kinds of clothes people wear. So, he likes all types of clothes.

He reads in class 7 in the government school. Nearest town from their village is 2 hours walk through the crossing of rivers which makes impossible during the summer.

He has something to say about marriage. He has seen boy of 14 years of age and 12 years old girl getting married, that is very common among the Praja people. Praja people are called Chepang as well. He said he is going to marry only when he crosses 20. He doesn't like Child marriage. He has an ambition, and that is to become a carpenter.

He tells about when he gets angry. He becomes very angry when someone teases him or provokes him for no reason. But he does not like to fight. When the letter from his sponsor was handed over to him, he at first could not believe it. When he read, he was very happy and he put letter inside the Bible. He loved the letter from the sponsor so much that he does not want to leave the Bible unattended.
